

Biennial Invitation to Peace Poetry

The Second international Festival of Peace Poetry

*With the agitated century you can't talk
With a white scarf
I salute you from afar*

Poets for peace from around the globe are invited to send us a maximum of 3 poems in praise and celebration of peace, in the original tongue along with an English translation.

From among the poems received, several will be selected to be honored and awarded during the Festival ceremony. Selected poems will be subsequently published in a precious book.

Charter of Peace Poetry

Poetry for peace is affiliated to humanity regardless of race, religion, sex and geography. Thus prejudice on any of these aspects will be a violation of its inherent message and principle.

In the first festival we were encouraged by the participation of poets from 16 countries, which increased our responsibility toward peace.

Dear participants are cordially requested to note the following important points:

- The texts must be typed.
- Short biography along with a photograph, phone number & address are needed.
- The deadline for the receipt of poems is 27 November 2008.
- The date for the Festival will be on May 16th, 2009.
- Please do not scan the texts.
